Staff meeting.

I had a talk with Dr. Compton and Mr. Morton this morning. Mr. Morton, formerly with the National Broadcasting Company, is taking over Kohler's duties with the Voice of America on October 1.

Dr. Leon Godshall, a friend of Laura Gross, and teacher at Lehigh University, Bethlehem, Pennsylvania, came to see me. He is about to go to Tokyo for two years as head of the Fulbright Scholarship Commission there. Air travel makes him ill, and he wanted me [redacted] to arrange for his transportation by boat.

Jack Jernegan came to see me about [redacted] personnel matters in North Africa.

We had our PSB luncheon meeting today at Bill Foster's office. Alan Kirk has now taken over the directorship of PSB. We discussed various things, including the escapee problem in Germany, and a project of General Smith for reviewing programs of his organization.

At 2:45 we had a meeting in Dean's office, to go over the position to be taken by the American Delegation at the next UN General Assembly meeting, with particular reference to Arabian-African-Asian area affairs.

C. R. Smith, Chairman of [redacted] American Airlines, called on me to talk about the negotiations shortly to be entered into with Mexico for civil aviation arrangements between the two countries.

Messrs. Thorp, Schaetzel and Sch[redacted] briefed me on the latest developments in their sphere of responsibility.

Allen Dulles came to see me. He is leaving shortly for a month or six weeks in Europe.
